

What is the Great North Care Record?

Great North Care Record gives the staff caring for you a more complete picture of your medical history.

It does this by making information held about you in different places such as your GP practice or local hospital available to the staff who are looking after you.

Being able to access this information helps make your care safer.

Your care. Connected.